

Day of Bake Sale Tips!

1. It's a Piece of Cake!

Keep the ingredients simple for potential food allergies and make goods that most people are familiar with. A cupcake for a dollar or a tavuk göğsü for three? Exactly.

2. Add Frosting to the Cake

Have posters at the table advertising the bake sale. Include ingredient lists for allergy awareness. Wear club shirts during the actual tabling, and bring smiles (not empty stomachs) to the table!

3. Whisk Your Audience Away with Deals for Multiple Items

What's even better than a cookie for a dollar? Three cookies for two dollars!

4. Create Ways for Multiple Payment Methods

Not many people carry hard cash around anymore. Create alternatives like venmo or Square for those who can't pay with cash.

*Note: The following disclaimer must be included under University policy
"This sale is not conducted by the University of California, Davis. Customers provide credit/debit card information at their own risk. The University does not guarantee the security of any credit/debit information collected in this transaction."*
