Hiding Groups From Your Profile

- You have the ability to either publicly display or choose to hide some or all of the groups to which you belong.
- Log in to CampusGroups
- Navigate to your group
- Select More or My Membership if it appears on your group page to select

The screenshot displays the CampusGroups interface for the 'Accounting Club' group. The top navigation bar includes 'Home', 'Groups', and 'Events' (with a notification badge for 24 events). The main content area shows the 'Accounting Club' group page with a 'More' dropdown menu open. The dropdown menu options are 'Forum', 'My Inbox', and 'My Membership', with 'My Membership' highlighted by a red box. The 'My Membership Settings' section is visible, showing the membership status as 'Member' (selected) and options for 'Just a Contact' and 'Leave group'. The right sidebar features a group profile card for the 'Accounting Club'.
